

As I promised, here is how to Get Raven Lords Mount Easily!

Keep in mind; there I have over 200 pages of gold tips in my book "Gold Secrets Guide".

Get Raven Lords Mount Easily - Solo With Druid

This is a guide on how to get the Raven Lord mount SOLO and EASILY. Just to set the record straight... this is both an Exploit and a Guide.

First of all, you MUST be 80.. a Druid, and have Swift Flight Form (To Summon Anzu) but do note that this method is slow and requires lots of patience.

Getting to Anzu's Room:

To get here, you must Stealth all the way through. Note, the first boss has Stealth Detect, so go around the room as far from him as possible.

First of all, stealth into the room, clear a few packs in Anzu's room - you need to clear enough so you don't pull any while fighting Anzu, and you need to clear the trash in one corner. Clear the Pack on the LEFT HAND SIDE of Anzu's Room. LoS them behind the Crypt and NUKE them down, use all CC possible.

When you're ready, summon Anzu, stand next to the Crypt on the South West side of the room, just in range of the Eagle Spirit, but out of range of Anzu - he is the bird on the East.

STRAIGHT AWAY, you MUST keep HoTs on the Eagle Spirit, if you don't, the Eagle Spirit will turn to stone and Anzu will start Regaining Stealth.

Here's a macro:
/target Eagle Spirit
/cast Lifebloom
/cast Rejuvenation
/cast Lifebloom
/Cast Lifebloom

Spam that Macro. The Eagle Spirit MUST NEVER AT ANY CIRCUMSTANCES NOT HAVE HOTS. EVEN TARGET HIM (Unless to check HP)

So you must be thinking 'If we're out of combat, and we haven't actually tagged him, how does he die?'. Simple, the Eagle Spirit does 300~ damage a second. Oh yes ladies and gents, 300! And Anzu has 236K HP... so it takes a while.

'Okay, fair enough, the Eagle Spirit kills him.. but surely then we must not get loot right?'

You may think that, but this is how you counter that pickle:

When Anzu has 2% or under

Keeping these Hots up on the Eagle Spirit and being Out of Range from Anzu keeps you out of Combat - yes, that's why, he was on 105K HP earlier and I went out of Combat, that is why he doesn't summon any adds.

YOU MUST NOT AT ANY CIRCUMSTANCES USE ANY SPELL ON ANZU, JUST DON'T. YOU. MUST. KILL. HIM. WITH 1 SPELL.

Starfire, Wrath, Moonfire, ANYTHING to kill him with ONE SPELL. If you do not kill him with one spell, poof - immune, adds inc, etc.
